Members of ASC and ACJS,

At the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), we recognize that the criminal justice students of today are poised to become the leaders of tomorrow. That is why we have designed a membership program specifically for full-time students. For only $30 you gain access to resources, training, and networking opportunities that will help you in your studies today and benefit your career in the years to come. This is remarkable value.

As an IACP Member, you will receive the following benefits:

- Access to more than 100 model policies
- Subscription to Police Chief magazine
- Access to members-only webinars
- Ability to participate on IACP committees and sections
- Discounted rates for The IACP Annual Conference and Exposition and other training and networking opportunities
- And much more.

By joining the IACP you will gain knowledge, expertise, and connections that will help you on your journey to law enforcement leadership. It will also show future employers that you are dedicated to the profession and have already begun to invest in your career.

For more information and to join today, visit www.theiacp.org/Membership.
